

* Poulsbo Pistoleros Cowboy Action Shooting (CAS) Match - September 27, 2026 ****

Boy, what a day — seven shooters and a plus one. It started out a little chilly, but it warmed up fairly quick. The grass monster was hungry again and insisted on keeping at least one empty brass from almost every shooter on almost every stage. Even with multiple people searching, it still put up a fight. I think we finally recovered most of them.

This was also the "Day of the Procedural". Some were probably due to my stage writing, and some were just good old-fashioned brain farts. That's cowboy shooting for you.

I want to thank our regulars — Cedar County Sheriff, Gunstock Jack, Shadow Bear, and Wireless — always dependable. It was great seeing Snowbirds Shinbone Shooter and Lady Lindy before they head back to Arizona. They were regulars back in the day; they might even have been among the founders of the old Webfoot Buckaroos. Safe travels home.

A warm welcome to Wyoming Stranger and his partner. Sorry I didn't catch her name, but she jumped right in helping pick up brass (and hunting for it) and resetting shotgun targets. Absolutely invaluable. At the end of our stages, she even took a few practice shots — hopefully a sign she'll be joining us on the firing line soon.

No clean match today — maybe next month.

You can find the Poulsbo Pistoleros online at: <https://poulsbosportsmanclub.org/cowboy-action/>
Scores are now posted on our webpage — take a look when you get a chance.

Cowboy Trap is held the first Saturday of each month at 9 a.m. If you're a shotgunner, come on out and join the fun. SASS rules apply. For more information, contact Chicken Lips at Chicken_Lips@embarqmail.com. I hear it's a hoot.

Our next shoot is October 25th — just in time for Halloween. Here's hoping for a great turnout, and I'll try not to make it too scary.

See you at the range,
Shoot Safe and Clean!
Let's kill some steel.
